

Is ion exchange allowed for processing organic products?

Yes, ion exchange is allowed under the NOP regulations as a processing technology. Any synthetic associated with the use of such technology would still need to be on the National List as an allowed synthetic, however.

e-CFR